

September 2019

Dear Website Visitor,

Thank you for your friendships. It is encouraging to be at home to write you, because I miss my church family when we are away. We fight for the same cause, we serve the living God by sharing Christ with others, but it is good to be near the fire of my home church again. Though the path is sometimes difficult; God is with us. Know that I pray for you. Please pray for Mexico there have been some violent flareups.

Singing for Jesus

In a joint presentation at my dad and mom's church. Dad gave a video tour of the Mission Warehouse and followed up with a strong charge to support missions. As the last speaker, I concluded the mission conference by reminding the members that others see their actions. Many of you have helped us at the mission by volunteering time, donations, and prayers when we needed help the most. Thank you for loving us. Thank you for serving with us.

The lot adjacent to the north of my parents trailer and the Mission Warehouse is now for sale. I need your prayers for wisdom as we seek God's will in this matter. I do not want to outrun God, but I do not want to lag behind either.

Maranatha, my home church's missions revival meeting started out with an international banquet on Saturday where I also serve on the missions committee. I have been honored to partner with Joseph Abrman (Missionary to Slovakia) and Duane Gibson (Missionary to Mexico) in prayer. I made some Paprika Chicken on behalf of Joseph Abrman who was not able to attend. Mr. Gibsons wife prepared an excellent enchilada casserole. As we ate together we discussed Duane's 51 years of service. Seeing God's faithfulness in his life encourages me. I know there were hard times, but God carried them through.

Dr. Miller chose to use the first part of Jonah 1:2 Arise, go. . . as the theme verse. Pastor Ellison preached about this reluctant missionary. God did not give up on him or the more than 120,000 people in Nineveh. Hearts and lives were changed. Today there is still work to be done. Jonah 4:2b . . . I knew that thou art a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil.

The Adjacent Lot

On Fire for Christ, Scottie J DeHart

Cell: (956)-580-0333
Email: sdehart@DeHartMissions.com
Mission: 2600 Sunset Boulevard Mission, TX 78574

Website: www.DeHartMissions.com
Sending Church: Maranatha Baptist Church
Support: 1800 N. Ware Road McAllen, TX 78501